

As a participant of TimeBank I agree to:

Respect another participant's privacy or confidentiality Respect other participant's viewpoints, and to not pressurise another participant to accept religious beliefs or political views.

Not involve friends or relatives in time bank activities by bringing them to a participant's home or venue, unless agreed with the TimeBank as being part of a group activity.

Not to ask for or accept money, gifts or tips from other participants, unless agreed with the coordinator. Do not eat or drink a participant's food and drink, unless invited to do so.

Respect a no smoking policy in a participant's home or venue.

Not use any possessions of the participant, including the telephone, unless given clear permission to do so.

Always treat other participants respectfully.

Do not exchange hours unless the TimeBank is aware (otherwise forfeit insurance cover).

TimeBank respect and support the 2010 Equality Act. Our fully detailed policies are available in the TimeBank Handbook which is on line in the members Section or a hard copy can be requested.

The TimeBank may maintain a photographic record of the activities undertaken by participants. These may be used in our newsletter and for general publicity, including the TimeBanks UK website. Please state if you are happy with this: